

Depression self-help guide graphics and diary

Describe the situation. You could write where you were, who you were with, and what was happening. For example, "I was at a party with a group of people I didn't know."

A rectangular text box with a white background and a thin grey border. It has a teal horizontal bar at the top and a purple horizontal bar at the bottom.

Your thoughts - for example, "no one wants to talk to me."

A rectangular text box with a white background and a thin grey border. It has a teal horizontal bar at the top and a purple horizontal bar at the bottom.

Your feelings - for example, "alone, uncomfortable, scared, embarrassed."

A rectangular text box with a white background and a thin grey border. It has a teal horizontal bar at the top and a purple horizontal bar at the bottom.

How your body felt - for example, "too hot, sweaty, shaky."

A rectangular text box with a white background and a thin grey border. It has a teal horizontal bar at the top and a purple horizontal bar at the bottom.

What you did - for example, "I hid in the corner."

A rectangular text box with a white background and a thin grey border. It has a teal horizontal bar at the top and a purple horizontal bar at the bottom.

	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3
Morning
Afternoon
Evening

Situation

My feelings

My unhelpful thought

Now complete the table below to challenge your own unhelpful thoughts.

What's the situation? For example, you could write who is there, what you're doing, and when and where it's taking place.
What are you feeling? For example, you could write how you feel and rate how strong your feelings are, from 0% to 100%.
Unhelpful thought
Evidence that supports the unhelpful thought

Evidence against the unhelpful thought

Alternative/balanced thought - after you've written an alternative thought, rate how much you believe in the thought from 0% to 100%

Rate how strong your feelings are now, from 0% to 100%